Children In Need/Anti-Bullying Awareness 17th November 2017

On 17th November we will be supporting Children In Need and also raising awareness of Anti-Bullying.

In support of Children In Need we are asking children to come to school with CRAZY! hair. Children can be inventive with their individual craziness.

stop bullying now!

To help raise awareness of Anti-Bullying we are asking children to come to school dressed in blue.

We look forward to seeing the blue craziness on Friday 17th November.

Parent Feedback

At The Willows we appreciate feedback from parents. If you need to speak to a member of staff please come and see us directly. We strive to achieve effective communication between our parents/carers and our school.

Good Time Keeping Matters?

Did you know that being 15 minutes late each day is the same as missing two weeks of school over the year.

Even just being five minutes late adds up to three days absence over the year.

Possible suggestions to help your child arrive to school at the right time....

- he/she gets enough sleep
- he/she has an alarm clock
- he/she has clothes ready the night before
- he/she packs bags the night before, including swimming and PE kits
